THE DIVERS STILL AT WORK

Securing Bodies From the Wrecked Battleship.

THE REPORTS TO BE INTERESTING

No Information in Answer to Inquiries Throwing Any Light as to the Cause of the Disaster.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

Havana, Feb. 28.—Today promises well for the divers who are still at work securing bodies from the wrecked battleship Maine. Including the Spanish divers there are as many as eight divers below the water some of the time.

Operations are on foot among the Spaniards to give a hearty reception to the Vizcaya, which is expected in this port today. General Weyler's street is arched with bunting and the Casino is gay with colors.

It is probable that the election of autonomist delegates March 29th will be postponed until April 27th to correspond with the election of deputies at Cortez, Spain.

STILL A MYSTERY.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Not a word of information has been received from naval department inquiries throwing any light upon the cause of the Maine disaster. No intimation as to the nature of the report is expected before the last of the week.

IT MAY BE WEEKS.

Key West, Feb. 28.—Divers are constantly at work on the Maine. When the commission returns their report will be most interesting. It is believed here by men who have been in communication with high officers of warships that the report of the board will not be made for weeks. In the meantime belief in the accident theory seems to be growing. The cruiser Detroit left here this morning for Tortugas and will return with a schooner of coal for warships.

Late Telegraphic Briefs.

It is reported that Korea has leased Deer Island to Russia.

The reason for hurrying the removal of injured sailors from Havana is found in the report of the United States Health Inspector in Havana, to be owing to the hospital being in one of the worst fever districts.

Lord Salisbury is suffering with influenza.

A half million dollars in gold was received in New York from Europe today.

Serious bread riots have taken place at Gallipoli where the mob attempted to burn the government offices. The police today made thirty-six arrests.

The dynamite cruiser Vesuvius left Jacksonville hurriedly this morning. Destination not learned.

Cyrus G. Bresden, ex-cashier of the First National Bank of Bethlehem, Pa., was today sentenced to seven years in prison for embezzling twenty thousand dollars. He collapsed and was led away weeping.

In Cardinal Gibbon's speech at requiem mass in Baltimore today, he said: "There will be no war even if Spain did it. The only circumstance that would warrant war would be evidence that Spain connived at placing torpedoes in the harbor of Havana to destroy the Maine, but does any one believe that any chivalric nation would be guilty of such inhumanity?" Proceeding, the cardinal praised President McKinley for his patience. He closed his speech with the quotation: "It is sweet and honorable to die for one's country."

Fitz. Lee to be Honored.

It is believed that President McKinley will appoint General Fitz. Lee Major General of United States Volunteers with an important command in Cuba in the event of war. The matter was freely talked about in military circles at the national capital today. Both republicans and democrats were of the opinion that such an appointment would be heartily endorsed by the American people.

Southern Vets Full of Fight.

Middlesboro, Ky., February 26.—A card in a local newspaper, asking ex-confederates to form a regiment to serve in case of war with Spain, has brought more than enough responses to fill the ranks from southwest Virginia, east Tennessee and Kentucky. The originator of the idea now contemplates the formation of a division to be commanded by Fitzhugh Lee.

NOTES FROM HIGH POINT.

The Local News from Our Neighbor Briefly Told.

TELEGRAM BUREAU.
HIGH POINT, N. C., Feb. 28, '98.

The Guilford College baseball team has just received their new uniforms. They have a bright prospect for a strong team this season.

Joe Newton, of Winston, who was here to assist in the minstrel Friday night, went home Saturday.

Miss Cora Pitts, one of the popular teachers in the Reidsville Graded school, spent Saturday and Sunday with her parents here.

J. E. Shell, who was at one time a resident of High Point, but now of Charlotte is here for a few days shaking hands with his many friends.

Miss Sallie Mills who has been visiting the family of Dr. J. O. Walker, of Randleman, returned home Saturday.

Rev. O. L. Stringfield, of Raleigh, filled the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday morning and night. He preached two excellent sermons.

W. J. Armfield, cashier of the Bank of Randolph in Asheboro, spent yesterday in the city.

Miss Bertha Snow, one of High Point's bewitching young ladies, witnessed the entertainment at Guilford College Saturday night.

Misses Maude and Annie Paschal who at one time lived here are visiting in the city.

Dr. W. W. Bays preached a strong sermon here in the Methodist church. He will lecture here tonight.

The windows of Sapp's racket store, is drawing quite a crowd today, looking at his new line of neckwear.

The minstrel boys are talking of repeating their show at an early date.

A large number of the Christian Endeavor society of Guilford College are going to attend a meeting of that society March 18th, 19th and 20th, which will be held in High Point. We welcome them here.

They Are Coming.

The greatest fun makers that ever visited Greensboro, will appear in the Academy of Music next Wednesday night, March 2nd. Polk Miller, Oscar P. Sisson and Estha Wallace. They are all known here as fun makers and they take the house by storm whenever they appear. Polk Miller, known to almost every one here, as the greatest old time negro impersonator now living, has never failed to please and amuse the people with his banjo, songs and funny sayings. Oscar Sisson and Estha Wallace are beyond a doubt the greatest pair to catch and please the people that has ever visited Greensboro with their funny comical songs and dances. This is a show for every body, old and young who want to spend an evening of enjoyment and fun. Seats now on sale at Gardner's drug store. Reserved seats 50 and 75 cents. General admission 25c, Children 12c.

Why He Wasn't There.

The civil service examination for janitor of the federal building at Statesville, N. C., the 17th, frequent, though not painful, mention of which has been made in these columns, was in every particular a success. Many applicants filled up the blanks, as made and provided, and they will get an answer in about two or three years. The landmark, in commenting upon the otherwise successful examination, says: "Col. Fairbrother, of Danville, Va., was not present with his promised speech, and there was much disappointment in consequence." The colonel was advised of a plot in Charlotte to kidnap him and vaccinate him—and accordingly he "fought shy."—Fairbrother's Farrago.

New Pie Deal.

And now the rumor is again current that the transfer of John R. Smith from the penitentiary to the agricultural department was merely Governor Russell's delicate way of getting rid of an old and faithful henchman. It is said that for a long time the executive eye has glanced approvingly upon John Graham, of the county of Warren. The eye of Senator Butler also rests approvingly upon Graham. Now then the little question is will the board of agriculture oust the one and elect the other when it next meets? Stranger things have happened. Smith says he doesn't know anything about the matter. Graham was here today.—Col. Old's.

PASSED A SLEEPLESS NIGHT.

Passengers on Board La Champagne Landed at Halifax.

CARDINAL GIBBONS' ADDRESS.

A Rumor Denied—Other Items of News from Various Corners of the Globe.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Halifax, Feb. 28.—The last night spent on board the steamer La Champagne by passengers was one of intense excitement. Little or no sleep was indulged in and all were anxious for dawn this morning that they might land and proceed to New York. With the knowledge that all danger was passed, there came a reaction. Many passengers of the middle class were penniless, having expected to find friends here from New York. A special train will leave here today and made a fast run to New York.

A PATRIOTIC ADDRESS.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Baltimore, Feb. 28.—Cardinal Gibbons was present today at mass held commemorative of the Maine's dead sailors and delivered a patriotic address in which he was closely followed by a large audience.

A REPORT DENIED.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM

London, Feb. 28.—It is emphatically denied that there is any truth in the report that Lloyd's Underwriters are asking for slight war risks upon Spanish steamers bound for the island of Cuba.

TO THEIR FULL STRENGTH.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Tacoma, Washington, Feb. 28.—Governor Rogers has ordered that twelve companies of the national guard shall be immediately recruited to their full strength.

Work of Fortification.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Port Townsend, Washington, Feb. 28.—The work of fortifying three conspicuous points contiguous to Port Townsend, which has been going on in desultory fashion for some months, is now being pushed forward under special orders from the secretary of war. Preparations are being made for placing heavy guns.

Consul ing Secretary Gage.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Washington, Feb. 28.—Representatives of some of the largest banking houses in New York are here consulting with Secretary Gage about the probability of issuing some bonds to remain until the report of the naval board of inquiry is made public when the question of a bond issue will be decided definitely.

Guarding the Village.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Columbia, S. C., Feb. 28.—The white residents of Lake City, where the colored postmaster Baker, was killed by a mob, are today guarding the village from an attack by armed negroes. Every road and path leading to the village is being closely guarded.

Weak from Fasting.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

Philadelphia, Feb. 28.—Rigid fasting at the opening of the Lenten season has prostrated Archbishop Ryan. He became so weak that he was unable to attend to his duties yesterday at the church and was removed to the parochial residence.

Stomach Cut Out for Cancer.

San Francisco, Cal., Feb. 26.—Dr. Charles B. Brigham, at St. Luke's Hospital, has made a complete excision of the stomach of a female patient suffering with cancer, and 36 hours after the operation she is resting comfortably, with almost a normal pulse and temperature. It will be at least a week, however, before there can be a well founded hope for a recovery.

Catches 'Em Napping?

Dr. Von der Hayden, of Yokohama, Japan, doesn't propose to let the microbes take him by surprise, and has built a house lined with glass, which gets its ventilation from above, through apertures so constructed that the air can escape, but no microbes sneak in. The air is admitted to the house by tubes, provided with filtering arrangements to catch microbes which might undertake to crawl through. How he manages to get in and out though, without letting some of them in, is not stated.—Wilmington Star.

TWIN-CITY DOINGS.

Some Things Talked of and Done in Winston-Salem.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Winston, N. C., Feb. 28.—The commissioners of the town of Stoneville through their attorney, Mr. L. M. Swink of this city, will bring suit at the next term of Rockingham court to test the validity of a $5,000 issue of bonds, of date January 1, 1889, subscribed to the Roanoke and Southern railway.

It is learned upon authority that the attorney general has designated the state penitentiary as a place for the imprisonment of all United States prisoners of this state sentenced to terms for over one year, but it is thought that no removals will be made from the federal to the state prison of parties already serving terms in the former. The customary inducements, such as a suit of clothes and $5 in money, will no doubt be offered to "graduates" of the latter as is done with the former.

Rev. Dr. W. S. Creasy, as chaplain, preached a very fine sermon to the members of the Forsyth Riflemen yesterday morning in Centenary church.

Mr. H. W. Burwell in his 72nd year died of paralysis in Salem last night at 7:45 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. H. A. Giersh. His son Ernest Burwell, of Tarboro, arrived here last night. The remains will be taken to Goldsboro tomorrow morning for interment.

The case of state vs. J. W. Harrison comes up tomorrow morning and will probably consume the major portion of the week. Opinion is divided as to the outcome of the trial.

Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Clewell, of the Salem Female Academy, left on their annual visit to patrons of the school this morning, going to Macon, Ga.

That's When.

Two ex-union veterans write the Washington Post suggesting, in view of the low state of the public finances and the imperative necessity for an increase in the navy, that the ex-union soldiers surrender their pensions to the government for one year, and the Post says that "should the suggestion meet with the universally enthusiastic response which it deserves, and which we confidently expect, the government will be in possession of the means required to build one of the finest fleets in all the world."

The Washington Post is a notable joker. One can, in the mind's eye, see the pensioners falling over each other in their zeal to help out the government in this time of need by surrendering for a year the swag for which they fit and bled and died. When the lusty infant, pinched by hunger is seen to turn away from its mother's milk; when empty swine chew the slop poured in the trough for them; when water runs up hill and men gather figs of thistles, the "universally enthusiastic response" will be witnessed. But not before then.—Charlotte Observer.

Will Come in 1900.

The National Educational Association which has been in session in Chattanooga adjourned to meet in Columbus, Ohio, next year. The strong effort, on the part of Superintendent Mebane and other State educators to induce the association to hold the next annual meeting in North Carolina failed.

North Carolina was a strong second and our representatives made many friends.

Mr. D. E. Ellis wrote Superintendent Mebane yesterday: "The meeting goes to Columbus, Ohio, next year. We will get it in 1900 sure. A strong plea was made for Asheville by Prof. C. D. McIver, Prof. J. D. Eggleston, Jr., and myself."

Columbus won the fight before the convention met.

The papers state that Dr. McIver's speech on the supervision of normal schools made a great hit and was a very able production.—Raleigh Post.

Threw a Shot Seven Miles.

Washington, Feb. 26.—A party of Government officials, accompanied by a Congressional delegation, went to Fort Washington this afternoon to witness a test of the new Reayburn ten-inch fortification gun guarding the approach to the capital at that point. The test was in every respect successful. Three shots were fired, each one reaching almost to Alexandria, seven miles distant. It was necessary for the gun to be in view but two minutes with each firing. The gun, it is stated can throw a shell 11 miles.

THE COURT AT KEY WEST

Meet the First Time on United States Soil.

THE WOUNDED ABLE TO SIT UP

Assigned to a Room in the United States Court House—The First Witness Examined.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM

Key West, Feb. 28.—The members of the court of inquiry were astride early this morning, preparing to meet for the first time on United States territory. They entered the room assigned them in the United States court house at 10 o'clock.

Lieutenant Blandin, officer of deck, will be the first and perhaps the most important witness among the Maine men. His testimony will occupy most of the first sitting. Other officers will then follow.

WOUNDED ABLE TO SIT UP.

All the wounded are able to sit up to be examined by the commissioners. Admiral Sicard said he thought the court would finish its work here by Wednesday and then return to Havana. Nothing can be said about its work.

Fire in Lynchburg.

Lynchburg, Va., Feb. 27.—The Stamford Dye-Works here were destroyed by fire at 1 o'clock this morning (Sunday,) with the exception of the box-sheds. The loss is $100,000, partly covered by insurance. The property was owned by the Stamford Manufacturing Company, of Stamford, Conn.

More Accurate Service in Greensboro Than Baltimore

Mr. C. M. Vansosty had his little girl's eyes examined in Baltimore last year and went with the prescription to one of the largest and best known optical houses there to have the glasses made up. FORTUNATELY one of the lenses got broken recently and was carried to the Greensboro Eye Specialist to be replaced. He saw at a glance that neither lens accorded with the prescription, and so changed them both. Mr. Vansosty sent the old lenses with an explanation to the oculist who had given the prescription and in reply received the following:

The most popular method of going to war would be by proxy.

Now Germany finds something wrong with American kerosene. It probably contains water bugs.

The season is near at hand when the question of the brand of bicycle and the stripe of bloomers will be insisted.

Among the most enthusiastic whoopers of war with Spain may be reckoned the proprietors of mountain resorts.

Governor Russell can offer by way of apology that he was not in the pink of condition for winning pugilistic honors.

It would not be a bad idea to have the vocal exchange of courtesies between Governor Russell and Mr. Hancock sterilized.

The Rev. Sam Jones announces that he is a gentleman. Most people belonging to that class find it unnecessary to resort to a formal declaration.

Mr. Sherman has at length expressed his views. Most people had come to the conclusion that he was denied even the privilege of having any.

Mr. Hancock and Governor Russell are proceeding to show how dangerous a thing it is to allow even political allies to size one up too thoroughly.

One of the most conveniently arranged almanacs of the great dailies that we have seen is that issued by the Washington Post. Like the Post the almanac is handy to have about.

One feature of the political situation in the state that it is worth while noting is that talk of fusion between democrats and populists does not seem to be causing republicans any great loss of sleep.

The Catholic priest at Kingston N. Y., who advised Catholics to fight with Spain against this country can now judge more accurately of the grip he had on his flock and the extent of his understanding.

Those of the brethren who are itching to scrap under the folds of Mr. Butler's banner will please note that he is at least on speaking terms with the genius of the republican pie machine at Washington.

King George of Greece behaved very coolly in the attempt to assassinate him on Saturday. But then it should be remembered that his majesty had excellent opportunities for correctly estimating the marksmanship of his loving subjects in the late misunderstanding with Turkey.

Mr. Sage sagely remarks "As for the stock market that has got to take care of itself for the present." The stock market can generally be depended upon to do that in the long run. It is not necessary to appoint a guardian for it. The manipulators of it during the late war contrived not to be bankrupted.

Russell Sage has patriotically declared that if the United States goes to war with Spain he stands ready to buy bonds if cash is needed. The American people must be deeply touched by such a display of fondness for his country. Mr. Sage did not state the discount at which he would be willing to buy.

Bobby Fitzsimmons professes a fraternal desire to get at Kid McCoy for the purpose of giving that young hopeful a much needed lesson in anatomy by locating his solar plexus for him. The only way anybody is likely to meet Bobby hereafter is to load the pair in a cannon and shoot them together.

THE MAYOR AND THE EVANGELIST

They Came Near Having a Lively Bout.

Rev. J. W. Lee and the mayor of St. Petersburg came very near having a personal difficulty last week. We clip the following from a lengthy account of the trouble published in the Sub-Peninsula of that city:

The climax was reached in the gospel tent this morning when Mayor Armistead went on the platform at the conclusion of Rev. Mr. Lee's service and charged him with slandering the town and defaming him (the mayor) personally. Mr. Lee had stated on the platform, it seems, that the mayor offered to set up a keg of beer if the band would go to the gospel tent and play to disturb the meeting. Mayor Armistead denied having done any such thing and challenged the proof, but stated if he had not been mayor he might have done it. Mr. Lee gave the sources of his information, and stated that if he had done injurious to the mayor he would very gladly make it right. A heated and somewhat desultory discussion followed, which was participated in by some extent by gentlemen who wanted to have the misunderstanding adjusted and the incident closed.

The article goes on to discuss the matter, and is rather severe on the minister, but does not say how the question was settled.—Sanford (Fla.) Chronicle.

Very Odd.

It is odd, how little clamor there is from the anti-civil service patriots for Consul General Lee's place at Havana.—Asheville Citizen.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of constipation and liver troubles. For galaris and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Their Fitness.

The advocates of woman suffrage did not make any converts by the recent meeting of the Daughters of the Revolution in Washington. The news comes that "the machine," composed of the ladies in control of the organization, carried off things exactly as they had planned, though the minority did not permit it without the usual "kicking." One report says: "There has been as much politics and wire-pulling and exhibitions and manipulation as clever as one often sees in a national convention of men, and the ladies have demonstrated their fitness to participate in public affairs."—News and Observer.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, coughs and colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr. King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home as in it we have a certain and sure cure for coughs, colds, whooping cough, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery. They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A Cleveland dispatch says:—Champion Bob Fitzsimmons expresses a willingness to fight Kid McCoy. Fitzsimmons says: "I will fight McCoy any time its worth-my while. McCoy and Ruhlman have no more right to fight for the championship than a yellow dog. The Kid has the swell head and he thinks he is in the heavyweight class. I will show him how to fight, if he has the long green to back up his bluff."

Notes of The Prowler
It is the honest opinion of this individual that when a man goes into a public auditorium, where there are ladies and gentlemen assembled to enjoy an evening, so drunk that he can't sit up straight and behave himself and hold his blubbery tongue, he should be heartily ashamed of himself. And when he stands by the sidewalk and swears worse than a sailor on a Spanish man-of-war, forcing ladies who are passing to hear his vile and filthy language he should be arrested and put in the cooler until he cools off.

The Prowler has not been asleep lately, notwithstanding the fact that Telegram readers have not heard from him in some days. The escapades of some of our young men have escaped public gaze and criticism, but the Prowler has been doing business. One young man made a call last week and stayed so late that the door of his boarding house was closed and barred against him on his return. It was cold and he could not spend the night roaming the streets. He thought of another place where he had formerly boarded and the thought of a comfortable room and a good bed induced him to seek shelter and lodging there. The door was found unlocked and shivering with cold he entered and cautiously made his way to his old sleeping apartments only to find a "full house." The night or rather the morning, was fast slipping away and he must sleep some and somewhere. This fact and the perilous position he was in, the danger of being heard and taken for a burglar, caused him to retreat hastily. He was next seen in the office of one of our hotels, where the clerk sleepily rubbed his eyes, and assigned him to a room. Our friend appeared at his place of business that morning wearing his Sunday clothes. This fact aroused suspicion, and thus the Prowler found him out.

"CHRONOTHANATOLETRON?"
Delightful Entertainment at Guilford College Saturday Night.

Quite a contingent of Greensboro people, including twenty jolly Normal girls, took advantage of the beautiful moonlight and drove out to Guilford College Saturday night to witness the presentation of "Chronothanatroleton," which was given by the Philagorean Society of that well known institution.

The auditorium was packed to its utmost capacity. People were there from High Point, Archdale, Greensboro, Jamestown and the surrounding country.

The first piece on the program was a solo, "The Ship I Love," by Miss Clara Woodward, which was admirably rendered.

The violin solo by Miss Elsie Weatherly, of this city, was received with genuine delight, eliciting much deserved applause, which showed that her effort was well received by the appreciative audience.

Next came the play proper. While all the characters acted well their respective parts, special mention might be made of Miss Lena Freeman as "Cleopatra," Miss Moffitt, as "St. Cecilia," her recitation, "The Shadow of a Song," being sweet and very pathetic; Miss Emma King, as "Mother Bickerdick."

The closing piece was a violin solo by Miss Elsie Weatherly which, like the first, was vociferously received. Miss Weatherly was thoroughly at ease and master of the situation. The Marshals for the occasion were: Misses Anna R. Anderson, chief; Cornelia Roberson, Nellie L. Jones and Minnie Williams.

Lecture Tomorrow Night.
Dr. Calvin S. Blackwell, corresponding secretary of the Baptist Young People's Union, auxiliary to the Southern Baptist Convention, and associate editor of the Baptist Union of Chicago, will lecture at the Baptist church in Greensboro tomorrow night instead of tonight, as has been announced. The following from the Birmingham Evening News will give an idea of what you may expect:
"Dr. Blackwell is a man of striking appearance and impressive mien. His dress is faultless and every article of his apparel evinces the essence of taste. He is a splendid speaker, his articulation and pronunciation being almost perfect. With exceptional forensic merit he combines decided dramatic talent. Dr. Blackwell made a profound impression here. He is an ecclesiastical statesman."
Hear him tomorrow night at the Baptist church. Admission free.
